

MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
DEPARTMENT OF HIGHER EDUCATION

INFORMATION PUBLISHED BY THE DEPARTMENT
UNDER SUB-CLAUSE (i)
OF SECTION 4(1)(b) OF THE RTI ACT, 2005

Particulars of Organization, Functions and Duties of the Department

Organization

Article 77(3) of the Constitution of India lays down as follows:

(3) “The President shall make rules for the more convenient transaction of the business of the Government of India, and for the allocation among Ministers of the said business”.

Under the above provision, the President has made the “Government of India (Allocation of Business) Rules, 1961”.

Rule 2 of these Rules says as follows:-

(2) “Allocation of Business – The business of the Government of India shall be transacted in the Ministries, Departments, Secretariats and Offices specified in the First Schedule to these rules (all of which are hereinafter referred to as ‘Departments’)”.

Rule 3(1) of the above Rules further says that “the distribution of subjects among the Departments shall be specified in the Second Schedule to these Rules.....”.

A Department is responsible for formulation of policies of the government in relation to business allocated to it and also for the execution and review of those policies.

The Govt. of India (Transaction of Business) Rules framed under Article 77(3) of the Constitution seeks to define the authority, responsibility and obligations of each Department in the matter of disposal of business allotted to it. While providing that the business allotted to a Department will be disposed of by, or under the direction of, the Minister-in-charge, these rules also specify:

- (a) cases or classes of cases to be submitted to the President, the Prime Minister, the Cabinet or its Committees for prior approval; and

- (b) the circumstances in which the Department primarily concerned with the business under disposal will have to consult other departments concerned and secure their concurrence before taking final decisions.

For the efficient disposal of business allotted to it, a Department is divided into Bureaus, Divisions, Branches and Sections.

A Department is headed by a Secretary to the Government of India who acts as the administrative head of the Department and principal adviser of the Minister on all matters of policy and administration within the Department.

The work in a Department is divided into Bureaux with a Special Secretary / Additional Secretary / Joint Secretary in charge of each Bureau. Such a functionary is normally vested with the maximum measure of independent functioning and responsibility in respect of the business falling within his Bureau, subject to the overall responsibility of the Secretary for the administration of the Department as a whole.

A Bureau comprises a number of Divisions each functioning under the charge of an officer of the level of Director / Joint Director / Deputy Secretary. A division may have several branches each under the charge of an Under Secretary or equivalent officer.

A Section is generally the lowest organizational unit in a department with a well defined area of work. It consists of Assistants and Clerks supervised by a Section Officer. Initial handling of cases (including noting and drafting) is generally done by, Assistants and Clerks who are also known as the dealing hands.

While the above represents the commonly adopted pattern of organization of a Department, there are certain variations, the most notable among them being the Desk Officer System. In this system the work of a Department at the lowest level is organized into distinct functional Desks each manned by two Desk functionaries of appropriate ranks i.e. Under Secretary or Section Officer. Each desk functionary handles the cases himself and is provided adequate stenographic and clerical assistance.

The Ministry of Human Resource Development (HRD) is one of the Ministries specified in the First Schedule of the above Rules, and consists of the following two Departments:-

- i. Department of Higher Education (HE)
- ii. Department of School Education & Literacy (SE & L)

The Minister of Human Resource Development heads the Ministry of HRD. For purposes of the Departments of Higher Education and School Education & Literacy, he is presently assisted by two Ministers of State, HRD.

At the administrative level, the Department of Higher Education is headed by a Secretary who is assisted by one Special Secretary and a number of Joint Secretaries/EA, Directors / Deputy Secretaries/DEA, Under Secretaries / Desk Officers and Section Officers.
