The fourth batch of delegates from the Agriculture and Allied Sectors visiting under Kashi Tamil Sangamam 4.0 experienced a deeply emotional and memorable day on Thursday. The group had darshan at the Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Mandir, Hanumangarhi and the banks of the sacred Saryu River, experiences that left a deep impression on the delegation.

The sight of Lord Ram's idol deeply moved the delegation, who described the moment as spiritually meaningful.

At Hanumangarhi, the delegation offered prayers at the temple of Lord Hanuman amid a devotional atmosphere. The visit filled them with a sense of inner strength, and they shared that being in Hanumanji's presence inspired renewed confidence in them.

In the afternoon, the delegation spent time at the banks of the Saryu River. They noted that Kashi Tamil Sangamam has offered a meaningful engagement with faith, history and spirituality, with the Shri Ram Temple darshan standing out as a particularly memorable moment.

Kashi Tamil Sangamam 4.0 continues to strengthen cultural connections between North and South India, and the farmers' visit stands as a significant reflection of this growing bond.
