«Lucerne Summer University: Ethics in a Global Context LSUE» under the patronage of UNESCO

On June 10 – 15, 2021, a remarkable faculty will meet with PhD and Master students from all over the world at the University of Lucerne, Switzerland to deal with highly relevant ethical questions and challenges of today and tomorrow. The international Summer University is singular in its form and offers a unique platform to address moral issues and ethical challenges across scientific disciplines in a sustainable and systematic way in a global context.

Interdisciplinary and connected

Affiliated to the Institute of Social Ethics ISE at the Faculty of Theology at the University of Lucerne, the LSUE is headed by Prof. Dr. Peter G. Kirchsclaeger. The LSUE is the core event of the project «Building a Global Network for Sustainable Responsibility» under the patronage of UNESCO. The LSUE's global dialog focuses on topics such as the ethics of human rights, gender justice, economic, financial and corporate ethics, the ethics of digitization, automation, robotization, the use of artificial intelligence and bio, medical and environmental ethics.
