SCHOLARSHIPS

for tenure from 2014

NEW ZEALAND COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIPS

New Zealand Commonwealth Scholarships (NZCS) under the Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan provide the opportunity for candidates from targeted developing Commonwealth countries to undertake postgraduate level study at one of New Zealand's eight universities. On completion of their scholarship, candidates are required to return to their home country to work for a minimum period of two years in order to make a significant contribution to the development of their country.

Ensure that you read the Notes for Applicants, available from your Nominating Agency.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

It is important that you correctly fill out all relevant sections in this application form and include all relevant documents listed below. Applications with unanswered questions or incomplete documentation will not be considered for a scholarship.

Having ensured that your application is complete sign the application declaration in Section 11.

Supporting documents provided with this application must be certified true copies of original documents with the official stamp and signature of a Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public, an official from the New Zealand Diplomatic Post, or another authorised official. Where original documents are not in English, you must provide certified true copies of official English translations.

All NZCS applicants must submit the original of this application form, completed in English. With the application form you must include:

- A certified copy of your birth certificate (in English).
- A certified copy of official evidence of any name change (in English).
- A certified copy of the personal pages of your passport.
- A certified copy of the academic transcript for all tertiary qualifications and the grading schedule for each qualification (in English).
- A certified copy of the completion or graduation certificate for each tertiary qualification that you have completed (in English).
- If you are employed, a current job description confirming your position and outlining your responsibilities and duties (see Section 6).
- A current (dated) curriculum vitae - a brief history of your education, work experiences and skills.
- Three (3) references (no more than 24 months old) on official letterhead, supporting your scholarship application to study in New Zealand. References should be provided from your current employer, a former lecturer and, where possible, a relevant government or community-based organisation.
- An offer of place from the New Zealand University at which you wish to study (see Section 8).
- A 500 word statement describing the specific skills and knowledge you want to gain from your proposed study and how this will contribute to your current and/or future job (see Section 9).
- A 500 word statement describing how your proposed area of study will enable you to contribute to the social or economic development of your home country (see Section 9).
- A 500 word statement outlining your proposed research topic (see Section 9).

SECTION ELEVEN: NEW ZEALAND COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIP DECLARATION

Conditions of Scholarship

By signing this application form, you are agreeing that you understand the terms and conditions attached to the New Zealand Commonwealth Scholarship and related study. If your application is successful and you are offered a scholarship, you will be asked to sign a declaration which confirms that you understand and agree to the conditions of the scholarship before accepting the scholarship.

The main conditions are that you:

- will take up the scholarship for the academic year for which it is offered;
- agree that the scholarship offered is for the appropriate field and level of study;
- acknowledge that no additional study under the scholarship will be considered;
- agree to follow your approved study programme and agree not to change the study programme or education institution without the prior agreement of MFAT;
- agree to study the approved study programme full-time, achieve satisfactory academic progress and meet all course requirements set out by the education institution;
- agree to comply with the regulations of the education institution;
- acknowledge that the ISO adviser at your education institution is the first point of contact during your scholarship;
- agree to ensure that the education institution has your current contact details;
- agree to the disclosure of information regarding your academic progress;
- agree to the release of information in the application form and information relating to your scholarship to relevant authorities (including your home government) in accordance with the New Zealand Privacy Act 1993 to enable collection of academic progress reports and results, consideration for a scholarship, and the on-going administration and monitoring of your scholarship;
- agree to the exchange of information between MFAT and authorities such as Immigration New Zealand (regarding your immigration status) or any other relevant government agency (e.g. New Zealand Inland Revenue or the New Zealand Qualifications Authority);
- assist with evaluation of your scholarship as required while on scholarship or on completion of the scholarship;
- agree to act in a manner that will not bring disrepute to yourself, your family, your country, your institution or MFAT during your scholarship;
- agree to ensure adequate support for your dependants should they accompany you to New Zealand;
- ensure your passport and student permit are kept current for the duration of your study;
- agree not to engage in employment beyond the restrictions applying to your visa;
- agree to return to your home country for a minimum period of two years within 14 days of the completion date of your scholarship and acknowledge that if you do not, you will incur a substantial financial debt to the New Zealand Government to the total value of your scholarship;
- acknowledge that MFAT requires individuals to spend at least two years in their home country on completion of their scholarship to utilise the skills gained from their study;
- agree not to submit an application for a work visa, visitor visa or permanent residence of New Zealand or Australia during your study and acknowledge that if you do, it will result in the scholarship being immediately terminated and that you will incur a substantial financial debt to the New Zealand Government to the total value of your scholarship;
- agree not to submit an application for a work visa or for permanent residence of New Zealand or Australia within two years of completion of your scholarship and acknowledge that if you do, you will incur a substantial financial debt to the New Zealand Government to the total value of your scholarship;

- agree not to receive other benefits funded by the New Zealand Government while on scholarship;
- agree to obey New Zealand's laws and maintain an acceptable standard of conduct while in New Zealand;
- agree that the laws of New Zealand will apply to any agreement between yourself and the New Zealand Government;
- agree to return home at the end of your scholarship, regardless of the time remaining on your visa, or at any time upon formal request of the New Zealand Government; and
- acknowledge that the scholarship may be withdrawn or terminated by MFAT if you fail to comply with the conditions of your scholarship.

Declaration

This section must be completed and signed by the Commonwealth Scholarship applicant:

I understand the conditions under which the Commonwealth Scholarship may be offered. If I accept a Commonwealth Scholarship, I agree:

- the information provided about and by me in the in this application for a Commonwealth scholarship is true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and that supplying incomplete or false information will result in MFAT withdrawing the scholarship;
- to carry out such instructions and abide by such conditions as may be stipulated by MFAT and the education institution supervising my scholarship, and sign an agreement with MFAT to that effect;
- the New Zealand Government is not responsible for my actions while I am in New Zealand; and that
- I am not aware of any medical or other condition (e.g. disability or illness) which might prevent me from completing my study within the time allowed for the scholarship.
