Subject: Call for nominations for the 2021-2022 edition of the UNESCO-Hamdan Prize for Teacher Development

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to invite your Government to submit nominations for the next edition of the UNESCO-Hamdan Prize for Teacher Development.

Following the sad passing of His Highness Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al-Maktoum, Deputy Ruler of Dubai and Minister of Finance of the United Arab Emirates, this edition of the Prize will undoubtedly be a special one.

The Sheikh will be remembered for his unwavering support for quality education, and for the teaching profession in particular. The UNESCO-Hamdan Prize for Teacher Development will pay tribute to this legacy for many years to come.

Following the educational catastrophe that the world experienced in 2020, which prevented up to 1.5 billion learners from attending class, and in light of the pandemic's ongoing effects, the 2021-2022 edition of this Prize is crucially important in supporting progress in the teaching field.

Funded by the Hamdan Bin Rashid Al Maktoum Foundation for Distinguished Academic Performance of the United Arab Emirates, the Prize was created in 2008 and will be awarded for the seventh time next year. The three laureates of the 2021-2022 edition will receive an award of US $100,000 each.

The Prize aims to improve teaching practices worldwide, especially in developing countries and marginalized and disadvantaged communities. It rewards candidates that have made an outstanding contribution to enhancing the quality of teaching and learning.

Candidates nominated for the Prize may be institutions, organizations and educational or research institutes.

Applications are to be submitted in English or French at the very latest by 31 October 2021 at midnight (Paris time, UTC+1) via a dedicated online platform. Nominated candidates can access the online application form through this link: <https://unes.co/hamdan-account-request>.

Each government may endorse up to five nominees. UNESCO encourages the Member States to set up a national selection procedure and to announce selected candidates.

Applications for the Prize will be examined by a Jury of distinguished international professionals with expertise and experience of teacher-related issues and representing all of UNESCO's geographical regions.

The Secretariat of the Prize (teacherprize@unesco.org) also remains at your disposal for any additional information.

Please accept, Sir/Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.
