(5) KERALA

828 Madarsas for the year 2014-15

The State Govt. of Kerala had sent a proposal of 828 madarsas for the year 2014-15 for consideration of GIAC. However, since there was no representative from the State Govt., the agenda item was deferred by the Committee.

Agenda 4: The Committee examined and approved the proposal received from NIOS for reimbursement of admission and examination fees for 11 madarsas of Allahabad region. NIOS was also requested to provide the details (soft copy and hard copy) of madarsas and students (boys and girls separately), state wise and year wise, covered upto 2014-15. It was also requested by the Committee to provide certification details. The NIOS requested for reimbursement as per the revised rates provided to the Department. The Committee observed that since the proposal has been submitted as per the old rates, the same will be approved and desired to submit the next proposal as per the revised rates for consideration. The Committee approved an amount of Rs. 10,62,850/-lakhs (4,04,750/- +6,58,100/-) to NIOS as per the following breakup.

Agenda 5: Infrastructure Development Private Aided/Unaided Minority Institutes (Elementary Secondary/ Senior Secondary Schools) (IDMI):

The Committee was informed that proposals have been received from the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh, West Bengal, Manipur, Nagaland, Sikkim and Kerala.

(1) ARUNACHAL PRADESH

The Committee examined two proposals received from the Govt. of Arunachal Pradesh for consideration under IDMI. The State Govt. representative informed the Committee that the institutions seeking grants were in very far-flung areas and because of their geographical location there are severe constraints regarding access to the institutions. Therefore, there was an extreme need for the hostels for these institutions. The Committee directed the State representative to give directions to the institutions to deposit 25% share in their account first, and then their proposal would be considered by the Central GIAC.

(2) WEST BENGAL

The Central GIAC examined the proposal from West Bengal however it was observed that all the institutions proposed for infrastructure were madarasas which are not schools affiliated with the State Govt. or Central Board of Secondary Education. The State representative informed that in West Bengal madarasas are affiliated to State madarasas board. Therefore, the Committee decided that a legal opinion is to be obtained regarding this before any decision in the matter is taken.

(3) MANIPUR

The Govt. of Manipur had forwarded one proposal under IDMI. However, since there was no representative from the State Govt. of Manipur, the agenda item was deferred by the CGIA Committee.

(4) NAGALAND

The Govt. of Manipur had forwarded one proposal under IDMI. However, since there was no representative from the State Govt. of Manipur, the agenda item was deferred by the CGIA Committee.

(5) SIKKIM

The Committee was informed that 8 proposals had been received from the Govt. of Sikkim, the representative of State Govt. of Sikkim requested for a multipurpose auditorium in a few proposals, which was not allowed. The Committee approved the following proposals.
